

Internal Revenue Manual Section 13.1.7.2 (02-04-2015)

TAS Case Criteria

1. As an independent organization within the IRS, TAS helps taxpayers resolve problems with the IRS and recommends changes to prevent future problems. TAS fulfills its statutory mission by working with taxpayers to resolve problems with the IRS. TAS case acceptance criteria fall into four main categories:
2. Economic Burden. Economic burden cases are those involving a financial difficulty to the taxpayer: an IRS action or inaction has caused or will cause negative financial consequences or have a long-term adverse impact on the taxpayer.
 - Criteria 1: The taxpayer is experiencing economic harm or is about to suffer economic harm.
 - Criteria 2: The taxpayer is facing an immediate threat of adverse action.
 - Criteria 3: The taxpayer will incur significant costs if relief is not granted (including fees for professional representation).
 - Criteria 4: The taxpayer will suffer irreparable injury or long-term adverse impact if relief is not granted.
3. Systemic Burden. Systemic burden cases are those in which an IRS process, system, or procedure has failed to operate as intended, and as a result the IRS has failed to timely respond to or resolve a taxpayer issue.
 - Criteria 5: The taxpayer has experienced a delay of more than 30 days to resolve a tax account problem.
 - Criteria 6: The taxpayer has not received a response or resolution to the problem or inquiry by the date promised.
 - Criteria 7: A system or procedure has either failed to operate as intended, or failed to resolve the taxpayer's problem or dispute within the IRS.
4. Best Interest of the Taxpayer. TAS acceptance of these cases will help ensure that taxpayers receive fair and equitable treatment and that their rights as taxpayers are protected.
 - Criteria 8: The manner in which the tax laws are being administered raises considerations of equity, or has impaired or will impair the taxpayer's rights.
5. Public Policy. Acceptance of cases into TAS under this category will be determined by the National Taxpayer Advocate and will generally be based on a unique set of circumstances warranting assistance to certain taxpayers.
 - Criteria 9. The National Taxpayer Advocate determines compelling public policy warrants assistance to an individual or group of taxpayers.

Reminder:

Taxpayers do not need to document their hardship to be accepted into the TAS program. Case Advocates will need to document the hardship in the course of developing the case and determining what relief is appropriate.
